Traffic Violator Course Completion (TVCC) Database

TVCC Database

Effective July 2, 2012, all court production systems must be updated, logged in, and using the Traffic Violator Course Completion (TVCC) database. Court personnel that update and clear Traffic Violator School (TVS) convictions must begin their training on the TVCC system in July. Traffic Violator Schools must begin using the TVCC database to report TVS completions as of August 1, 2012.

Procedures

As of September 1, 2012:

- Traffic Violator Schools will stop issuing paper completion certificates.

- Courts will not accept paper completion certificates.

- In the event that DMV is unable to issue paper certificates to a licensed TVS, the school shall issue the student the required completion receipt. DMV encourages the courts to accept completion receipts issued prior to September 1, 2012.

Training

Additional training will take place in July in the following locations: Sacramento, Oakland, Los Angeles, and San Diego. The exact dates are provided in OLIN 2012-12 Additional Traffic Violator Course Completion Database Training.

Background

Legislation requires a TVCC database to be developed and implemented. All courts and TVSs are required to use the new system. Final implementation will be August 1, 2012.
